

Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better. It's not.

The Lorax
Dr. Seuss

Health care, the one industry guaranteed to remain recession proof, is expected to generate 3 million new jobs within the next seven years. Highly trained medical professionals are desperately needed to fill positions in hospitals, long-term care facilities, rehabilitation centers and allied health organizations.

We offer award-winning certificate programs for nurses and other licensed medical professionals.

- Case Management
- Forensic Nursing
- Legal Nurse Consulting
- Sexual Assault Examination Training

Because many of you work long hours in places faraway, we offer many courses online. You're just one mouse click away from our expert instructors and a more challenging and prosperous future.

For certificate programs and contact information, see page 80.

The information in my “Medical Malpractice” class was practical, immediately applicable and employer-based. Class sessions were often a valuable group discussion, with students and instructors contributing real life questions and experiences that brought the classroom to life. The net result was an intellectually rich environment.
