

On the Road with UCR Osher

Join us to explore and experience the cultural, historical, and architectural wonders of Southern California. The field trips and tours are conveniently scheduled on Saturdays. We welcome all suggestions for additional trips you would like to see scheduled during the 2016–2017 academic year. Early registration is strongly advised to ensure your enrollment, and prevent cancellation of tours. More detailed information on each trip is available in the Osher office at UCR Extension and at www.extension.ucr.edu/osher.

LA Opera: The Tales of Hoffman

Saturday, April 2, 11 a.m.–7 p.m.

Hoffmann recounts the stories of the fascinating women who captured his heart—wind-up doll Olympia, conniving Giulietta, fragile Antonia and elusive Stella. Hoffmann's doomed pursuit of romance, foiled by sinister figures of darkness at every turn, ultimately lead him to a poet's artistic salvation. Plácido Domingo conducts Offenbach's compellingly luminous score.

Section No.: 164-CCS-405

Includes admission ticket and roundtrip transportation from the UCR Extension Center. Lunch on own at San Antonio Winery. Bus departs Extension Center at 10:00 a.m. Parking in Lot B is included.

Cost: $45 RSVP with payment on or before March 24. Limited tickets available.
