

UCR Extension Center • Ground Floor

Know the parking policy. At the Extension Center ...

Temporary Parking: Temporary visitor parking is available in metered spaces in front of the Center for 25¢ per 15 minutes (two-hour maximum). These spaces are intended for students who are registering for classes.

Parking for Classes: Parking is available in the Center's parking structure and the adjacent surface parking lots. Permits are needed seven days a week from 8 a.m.-10 p.m.

One-day visitor parking permits for UCR Extension Center, which cost $5, are available in machines in the lot. Quarterly evening/weekend parking permits (3-10 p.m. evenings, all day weekends) are available for $30 per quarter. Quarterly general parking permits (8 a.m.-10 p.m. daily) are available for $84 per quarter.

Other Campus Locations ...

Parking is available in visitor lots for $2 per hour up to $6 weekdays, and $5 per entry evenings after 4 p.m. and weekends. Permits are available for purchase at the information kiosks located at the entrances to campus off University Avenue and Martin Luther King Boulevard. Extension's quarterly parking permit cannot be used in any campus lots. Parking on campus is enforced 7 a.m.-10 p.m. seven days a week.

How to Buy a Permit ...

Permits may be purchased in person at Student Services, by mail or online. Pre-purchased permits will be held at the Student Services registration desk for pickup prior to first night of class. Parking permit refunds will not be granted after the second week of the quarter.
